

Public Act 328

Public Act 328 (effective January 1, 1995) requires public school districts to expel any student who possesses a dangerous weapon in a weapon-free school zone or commits either arson or rape in a school building or on school property (including school buses and/or other school transportation).

A dangerous weapon is defined as “a firearm, dagger, dirk, stiletto, knife with blade over three (3) inches in length, pocket knife opened by a mechanical device, iron bar, or brass knuckles or other devices designed to or likely to inflict bodily harm, including, but not limited to, air guns, and explosive devices.”
